

Surprised on Their Silver Wedding Day

Levang's Weekly, published at Lanesboro, Minn., last week contained the following account of the twenty-fifth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Dunnun, former Hannaford residents:

Twenty-five years ago on April 28 Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Dunnun were united in marriage. Even after a quarter of a century there were friends who remembered the day, and quietly these arranged a surprise party on the genial manager of the Lanesboro Co-Operative Mercantile Co. and his esteemed wife.

The event came off Friday evening, April 27th. Mrs. Dunnun and her sister-in-law, Mrs. P. A. Anderson, visiting with her, were invited out for the afternoon to a friend in Brooklyn. Taking advantage of her absence other friends took possession of the residence. When the lady returned at supper time she found her house filled with people, old friends and new, over forty in all. Among the unexpected guests were her sister, Mrs. Mary Hoel of Hill City, Minnesota, and her brother, Oscar Anfinson and family of Proble township, also their daughter, Mildred, of Winona. Naturally, during the afternoon Mr. Dunnun had to be let in on the secret, but to his wife it was surely a great surprise. The self-invited party had prepared a banquet and it was a jolly gathering that set down to the tables. The guests came bearing other gifts, also, Mr. and Mrs. Dunnun being presented with a purse of money, silver and linen. It was late before the guests departed after a most enjoyable evening.
