

Clarence Kjelson Joins Benedicts

Clarence Kjelson, of Sutton, Weds
Young Lady of Napoleon, N. D.,
Where the Young Couple Will Make Their Future Home.

Clarence Kjelson, the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Christ Kjelson of Sutton, came here from Napoleon, N. D. last Wednesday, accompanied by Miss Augusta Bauer, a charming young lady of that village, and that same day they were united in marriage by Rev. Geo. S. Natwick.

Clarence is well known here, as he attended the local school some years ago, soon afterwards enlisting in the army and spent some time on the Mexican border at the time of the trouble with that country. Upon the entrance of this country into the world war, he was among the first arrivals in France, spending about eighteen months overseas. Before enlisting he had been for a short time salesman for a wholesale hardware firm, and when he returned from France he entered the employ of the Napoleon Hardware Co., as manager, a position he has since held, and has met with unusual success in that business.

Mr. and Mrs. Kjelson will make their future home in Napoleon, and their many friends in this community will heartily join in the chorus of well-wishes that are extended to this young couple.
