Raymond Rohlwing Married at New Rockford Last Week. The Transcript Gives Write-up of Wedding.

Miss Hazel Speck, of New Rockford, and Raymond Rohlwing of this village were united in wedlock last week at the home of the bride's parents near New Rockford. The New Rockford Transcript gives the following account of the wedding:

"A wedding of interest to the people of New Rockford and Eddy county, was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Speck, south of this city, at two o'clock, Thursday, December 14, when their daughter, Miss Hazel, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Raymond Rohlwing, of Hannaford, the ceremony being performed in the presence of the near relatives of the high contracting parties and a few intimate friends by Rev. Walter Shelley, of the First Congregational church, of this city. Mrs. Howard Speck, sister-in-law of the bride, was the bridesmaid. The bride was becomingly gowned in a dress of brown canton crepe and carried a large arm bouquet of pink bride's roses. The groom was dressed in the conventional black and was supported by Howard Speck as best man. Following the ceremony and congratulations the wedding party sat down to an elaborate wedding dinner prepared by the bride's mother. The happy couple departed on Great Northern No. 2 the same evening for a wedding trip to Chicago and other points east after which they will be at home to their many friends at the fine farm home of the groom near Hannaford.

"The bride in the above happy event is well known to the people of New Rockford and Eddy county, being the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Speck, old and highly esteemed pioneers of the county. She is a young lady of much charm of manner, with a circle of friends and admirers which included her entire large acquaintanceship. The groom is one of the progressive farmers of the Hannaford community, a splendid young man with a bright future before him, and a fitting mate for the fine young lady he has secured as a life partner."

The Enterprise joins in with their many friends in extending congratulations for a long and happy married life.
