HANNAFORD SCHOOL NOTES

The Literary Society gave a very interesting program Friday afternoon. Mrs. Isackson, Mrs. C. E. Jackson, Mrs. O. E. Thoreson, Miss Sabby, Mrs. Albert Stetten, Mrs. Odell, Mrs. Wolverton and Kenneth Rosdal were visitors.

A number of the pupils have been absent lately because of the shortage of labor in the potato fields.

During the past week a Ladies Home Journal drive was carried on to raise money with which to purchase a Victrola for the High School. At present we have thirty-seven subscriptions, which nets us eighteen dollars and 50 cents. The drive will close Tuesday evening.

The six weeks exams for the High School are being given this week.

A great change has been noticed in the office and recitation room in the basement. We suspect a fall house-cleaning.

Some of the High School girls look rather pale. We wonder if they're really sick, or if they only have too much on?

The Primary room sent a bouquet of carnations to Myrtle Bakken, who is ill in the hospital at Valley City.

The Intermediate Room has enrolled two new pupils, Norman Boe and George Hill, making a total enrollment of forty-two.

FOUND—A good dark brown hair net on a button on my coat. Leonard Haugen.

Clinton to Robert Angus: "Do you mean to say I stole your five dollar bill?"

Robert A. "No, but then—"

Clint. "Well what?"

Robert "If you had not been with me when looking for it, I probably might have found it."

LOST—A perfectly new dark brown hair net. Oline Kaastad.

Found A heart (extra size) Don S. Wanted: Some one to work my Algebra. Lester Larson.

Advice. If in doubt as to proper time to don woollens, consult M. S. (Adv.)

Lester. "Dad, I received 100 per cent in three lessons today."

Father "That's good. Tell me in which subjects it was"

Lester. "50 in Algebra, 30 in English, and 20 in History."

Teacher "Clinton, what is an income tax?"

Clint "It is when you sit on a tack."

Teacher "No, I'm afraid you don't see the point."

Clint "You don't, sir. You feel it"

Cuss: "I don't think I should get zero on the paper."

Teacher. "Well, I don't either, but that's the lowest I can give you."
