

Hannaford Schools. Now Open

The Hannaford School is opening to-day with a promise of a larger attendance than in any previous year. Several out of town high school students are making arrangements for board and room in town during the school term.

The teachers have all arrived and yesterday met at the school house to plan the year's work. The members of the teaching corps is as follows:

Joseph S. Johnson, Superintendent

Katherine L. Rekstad, Assistant

Mrs. C. Anderson, Seventh and Eighth Grades

Emma B. Nestos, Fifth and Sixth Grades

Margaret E. Brown, Third and Fourth Grades

Inga M. Olson, Primary.

The school year is starting out under the most auspicious circumstances, and it is the hope of both parents and teachers that it will so continue throughout the entire school year.
