

Rev Sigurd Olsen, who for the past seven years has been pastor at Union Lutheran Church, is leaving with his family this week for Hallock, Minn., where he will visit for two months at the home of his sons Carl A. and Edgar R. Veblen, after which he expects to spend the winter in Minneapolis. During his years of service here, Rev. Olsen has at all times maintained the most cordial relations with his congregations and his resignation at this time is due to his belief that his work should be taken up by a younger man. The Enterprise, as well as a large host of other friends of Rev. Olsen and family, are sorry to see this estimable family leave the community, but they are accompanied by the sincerest best wishes of their many Griggs and Steele county friends wherever they may go.
