

Otto Retzlaff, of Jessie, was badly injured last week, while attending to some duties at the Farmers' elevator. He had gone to the top to make some adjustments and in leaning over a shaft his clothes became caught in a sprocket wheel, with the result that a few ribs were broken and inflicting wounds on his body.—Binford Times.

In our last issue an advertisement