

* * * * *

SIBLEY TRAIL

* * * * *

J. J. Hogness and family of Karnak visited at the Jonas Ose home last Sunday.

During the severe storm of last Thursday, the roof of a granary was blown off at the R. Wiji farm.

J. A. Johnson, Superintendent of Schools of Barnes county, called at the Ladbury School, May 17th.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ladbury were callers at the county seat last week.

Chris Minch sustained injuries to an arm and shoulder in a runaway Wednesday.

Gladys Mosher closed a term of school in the Goplen School Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Mosher and Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Ladbury took advantage of the Dollar Day, as well as the Free Matinee at Valley City Saturday.

Not even rain will dampen the spirits of Lila Stuart. The Wednesday night trip to Hannaford was rather uneventful.

Henning Anderson visited at the H. K. Stromme home last Sunday.

Lillian Thompson was a caller at Cooperstown last Monday, having dental work done.