

William Stewart arrived in Hannaford this morning from Chicago, where he has been making his home. Mr. Stewart first came to North Dakota in 1881, and has spent the greater part of the time since then in Griggs county, so, no matter where his wanderings take him, he always has a warm spot in his heart for the state, and hardly a year passes but he makes us a visit. Mr. Stewart has now disposed of his house in Chicago, and has taken up his residence in Fargo.
