

M. A. Thomson, accompanied by his brother Harold, made this town a business call on last Saturday. It is Mark's first visit to our burg since the automobile accident. He is feeling fine and says that in a few days he will be able to navigate without the aid of a crutch.

---