

• • • • •
WALUM NEWS NOTES
• • • • •

The Walum Young People's Society meets Sunday evening Dec. 11, at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Fogderud, the Misses Eva and Laura entertaining. You are cordially invited.

Joe Nelson and his mother left Friday afternoon for their home at Clarissa, Minn., after having spent the past week here visiting at the Robert Nelson home.

Pete Grotting spent the time between trains at Cooperstown Saturday on business.

Arnold Skofstad returned here Monday evening from his home at Cooperstown where he has been visiting since returning from the hospital at Fargo. We are all glad to see Arnold back on the job.

John Broten was at Glenfield Monday attending to some business matters of his.

Grover Campbell came up from Fingal Monday to look after some business interests here. He returned the same day.

Ferman Layne of Edmunds was a business caller in town Friday of last week.

John Broten, E. W. Everson, T. J. Hagen, Carl F. Werner and O. A. Gilbertson motored to Cooperstown Saturday evening to hear Rev. Hope of Norway. The trip was made under contract with John Broten, Hagen guaranteeing to produce sufficient air for flat tires. Safety of the passengers was guaranteed by Mr. Broten. Everything went fine.

Mrs. Edw. Hoffman was a Cooperstown passenger Tuesday.

Peter Grotting went to Cooperstown Tuesday on business.

O. Oppgaard came up from Dazey Monday for a short stay here on business.