

WALUM NEWS NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Rognlien and daughter Josie left last Monday for Bismarck where they spent a few days attending sessions of the house and senate and a meeting held there by the Nonpartisan ladies' organization. They returned home Friday.

Mrs. Julius Larsen left last Monday for Oriska where she will visit at the home of her sister.

Clifford Wogsland was a Valley City passenger last Monday, going there to have some dental work done.

Mrs. J. P. Danielson and Miss Berdie Wogsland went to Dazey Tuesday evening to visit with friends there.

Matt Johnson returned to his home at Cooperstown Wednesday after having spent a few days visiting with relatives west of Walum.

We are giving away free on March 19th, one Primrose Cream Separator. $5.00 paid on your account or for merchandise entitles you to a number. Farmers Co-Op. Merc. Co. Walum.

E. W. Everson arrived home Friday from Bismarck where he has been the past week.

Geo. Medley went to Cooperstown Saturday to attend the meeting held there to ascertain the wishes of the people in regards to whether or not support should be given Attorney General Lemke in the railroad rate case.

Martin Kins left Saturday for his home at New England, N. D., after having spent the past two weeks in this vicinity visiting friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Rognlien and daughter Josie spent the time between trains at Cooperstown Saturday.

Herman Haugen was a county seat passenger Saturday.

Geo. J. Jacobson left Saturday for

Washington

This day we celebrate of his Country. Washington man and he laid the found

It has been some time the fellow and backed hatchet, but his name is so full people. Washington That's what made him a man. It pays to look ahead made that way, by foresomy. That's where the le An account at our Bank w

FARMERS S

Walum, N

Valley City on a business mission.

Chester Wunderlich autoed over from Jamestown Friday.

Arnold Skofstad went to Lovell Friday for a short visit with friends and relatives there.

J. E. Jacobson came up from Dazey Thursday and spent the time between trains visiting with his brother George.

Sutton Reporter: Miss Lillian Byington had the honor of winning first prize of $25 for her essay, "The Future of the Dairy Cow in North Dakota," in a contest arranged by the state buttermaker's association. Lillian naturally feels proud of this achievement, as she will of course come in for her share of publicity in the various farm journals of the northwest, as well as in many of the newspapers in the state.

Can You Beat It?

Wahpeton Globe Gazette: Barney school district had money in the Bank of North Dakota which it was unable to draw out. Being short of