

WALUM NEWS NOTES

Miss Blanche Sondroll left Friday for Fargo to visit at her home in Moorhead, and attend the State Teachers' Convention being held in Fargo this week. Miss Sondroll is the delegate from Greenfield township.

Arnold Skofstad left Wednesday for Fargo where he expects to take treatments for an ailment.

Messrs. John Broten and Carl F. Werner motored to Glenfield last Friday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Iverson left Sunday morning for Kalispell, Mont., where Mr. Iverson has secured a position in a bank. They expect to make their home there. The Enterprise joins their many friends in wishing them an abundance of good luck in their new field.

Messrs. E. W. Everson and Andrew Wogslund were county seat visitors Friday on business.

Chas. Christopherson came up from Dazey Sunday and visited at the C. F. Werner home.

Mrs. L. Beckman returned Monday from Sanborn where she has been visiting with friends.

Oscar Storlie left Monday for Lakeville, Minn., where he expects to remain for the winter.

E. W. Everson left Monday for Bismarck to attend the inaugural of the newly elected state officials.

Misses Esther Skofstad and Erlie Larsen spent the time between trains at Cooperstown Saturday.

Miss Evelyn Bowers left Tuesday evening for her home at Kensal, N. D., where she expects to visit.

The Walum Young People's Society meet next Sunday evening in the church, Mrs. Nels Olson and Mrs. John Overby entertaining.

M. O. Wallum and C. B. Neal were passengers for Cooperstown Saturday on business. They spent the time between trains there, Mr. Neal going to Fargo the same evening.

Henry Lewis was a passenger for Cooperstown Monday.