

WALUM NEWS NOTES

C. F. Werner, Eric O. Wallin and Carl Heyerdahl went to Fargo Thursday evening on business. They returned here Saturday evening.

The St. Olaf's Ladies Aid supper and sale held Wednesday evening in the hall was well attended and proved a success both as to attendance and financially.

Oscar Storlie spent the time between trains at the county seat last Thursday on business.

Mrs. Robert Ball came over from Finley Wednesday to visit at the C. C. Nash home here. She returned to Finley Friday.

A carload of bridge iron is being unloaded here for the new steel bridge to be constructed across the Bald Hill creek just east of Walum.

Mrs. M. O. Wallum and daughter Mrs. C. A. Evenson went to Fargo Friday to see Mrs. Williams who is in St. Lukes hospital there. They returned home Saturday evening.

C. B. Neal and T. J. Hagen motored to Fargo Saturday where they expected to spend the week end.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Brown died Monday night. Funeral services were held Tuesday, Rev. George S. Natwick officiating. The Enterprise joins the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Brown in extending sympathy to the grief-stricken parents in this their sorrowful time.

KNOW—DON'T GUESS!