

Campbell. The bride has spent the major portion of her life here in Walum making her home with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. J. Jacobson, is well and favorably known, and is considered a very charming and accomplished young lady. The groom has made his home at Drumwright, Okla. for the past few years where he is employed by a large oil concern. They expect to leave in a short time for Drumwright, Okla., where they will make their future home.

The Walum Drum Corps was called into action Thursday evening after word had been spread of the marriage of Miss Lela Campbell to Mr. Raymond Newport. After proper organization was accomplished, the tin can brigade charged on the Jacobson residence for the exclusive purpose of locating the whereabouts of the newlyweds. After a considerable amount of noise had been made with no avail it was decided a search was necessary and the couple was found stowed away in the Robert Nelson home. Demands proper for the occasion were made on the groom and submitted to. The crowd of about thirty-five were taken to the Campbell pool room where all were given a treat. After this the crowd all went to the Walum hall where an enjoyable time was had until about 1:30 a. m. When the crowd broke up a few of those present escorted the bride and groom to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. J. Jacobson where they were served a delicious lunch. A few of those present felt it their duty to entertain the newly married couple still longer and their stay was prolonged until 3:00 a. m. when they felt they had given the couple proper entertainment on their first married night.

Arnold Skofstad motored to Cooperstown, Saturday where he expects to remain for a week getting his mother's property ready for auction sale which will be held on the 3rd of March.
