

The following clipping is taken from the Union City Register-Weekly, Mich., containing a notice of the death of Mrs. P. H. Craig: Entered into the life immortal on Saturday, March 20. Mrs. Carrie Moseley Craig, wife of P. H. Craig of this city. Mrs. Craig was a daughter of Col. Thos. Moseley, a much respected and influential resident of Union City in the pioneer days, and all her life had been spent in this place where she was known and esteemed by a wide circle of friends for her upright character, her generous disposition and loyalty to those she loved. Mrs. Craig is survived by her husband, one son, James Moseley, and two sisters, Mrs. Martha Antisdale and Mrs. Frank Watkins of this place.
