

Anna Marie Hanson passed away at the home of her son Christ Hanson in Dover township, Sunday, Nov. 19, at the age of 79. She had suffered a stroke of paralysis some three years ago, but had recovered. November 18th she again had a stroke and died the following day. Mrs. Hanson and husband settled in Bartley in 1883. Her husband, Willick Hanson, died three years ago. She is survived by six sons, Christ, Tom, Matt, Andrew, Hans, and William, and one daughter. Funeral services were conducted at the home on Monday, Nov. 20, by Rev. P. A. Thoreson and the same evening the remains were shipped to Waukon, Iowa, to be interred beside the remains of her husband. Many of the old settlers in the southern part of