

Mrs. Joseph Hoggarth

Mrs. Joseph Hoggarth died at a hospital in Minneapolis, Sunday, Aug. 27th, 1916, the cause being Brights disease. The remains were sent to Hannaford for interment and funeral services were held from the home at 2:00 Tuesday afternoon, Aug. 29, Rev. McKinnon of Cooperstown officiating, assisted by Rev. P. A. Thoreson.

Hannah Francis was born June 16, 1858, in Ontario, Canada, and was united in marriage to Joseph Hoggarth, May 21, 1877. They came to North Dakota thirty-five years ago, living for a time in the Red River valley, and at Cooperstown, but the greater part of those years were spent on the homestead west of town. Mr. and Mrs. Hoggarth were thus among the pioneer settlers of Griggs county.

Deceased is survived by five children, Frank and Milton of Minneapolis, Mrs. Melvin C. Sonju and Amy and Ernest Hoggarth at home. Besides these she leaves one brother, John Francis of this place, and one sister, Mrs. Margaret Sinclair of Alberta, Canada.

Mrs. Hoggarth was a member of the Baptist church, having joined that congregation at Cooperstown twenty-eight years ago.
