

Word has been received that Andrew Holte died in Norway early last month. He was visiting in the Old Country when he was suddenly stricken. He was the father of Mrs. Hans Simensen and had many friends in this county where he had resided for many years.