

Word was received here last week from Louise Kaas that her brother Nels had died at his home at Pigeon Falls, Wis., after a long illness, and suffering intense pain, from a complication of diseases.