

Walter Swenson, the fifteen year old son of Nic Swenson, died at a sanatorium at Rochester, Minn., on Wednesday, February 24. His father was with him at the time he expired. The remains were taken to Mr. Swenson's home where funeral services were held last Tuesday. The funeral sermon was preached by Rev. P. A. Thoreson in Eidfjord church and interment was made in Eidfjord cemetery. The church was filled with people who had come to pay their last tribute to the departed. The sorrowing parents have the sympathy of the entire community in their great bereavement.
