

BATTLESON. EDLAND

A Very Pretty Wedding was Solemnized at Underwood, June 26th

A very pretty wedding was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Battleson, Underwood, Minn., Saturday, June 26th, when Miss Marie Elise Edland and Benjamin W. Battleson were united in the bonds of holy wedlock.

A very impressive ceremony was performed by Rev. Samuel Louis Parish, District Superintendent of the Methodist Episcopal church.

The bride wore a charming gown of cream-white satin and oriental lace, trimmed in pink and white roses and crystal beading insertion. The charming effect of the bride was greatly heightened by the wearing of a tulle veil and wreath and carrying a bridal shower of roses, smilax and sweet peas.

She was attended by the groom's sister, Isabelle whose gown was of pale green crepe de chine. The groom was attended by the bride's brother, Olof.

The bridal party took their places under an arch of green ferns and roses, while Mrs. Roy Keefe played a wedding march.

The ceremony took place at high noon and after congratulations the wedding party and guests partook of a four-course dinner on the lawn.

There were more than a hundred guests and the happy couple received many beautiful and useful gifts.

Several songs were rendered by Misses Nelson and Peterson, which were appreciated by all.

The bride grew to womanhood in this vicinity, and is held in high esteem. She is a graduate of Oak Grove Seminary and has taught in different parts of the state. The groom grew to manhood in the vicinity of Underwood, where he taught school for several years and later joined the pioneers of Northern Minnesota, where he taught school, homesteaded and operated a photograph gallery. He is at present interested in a mercantile and hardware business at Hamlet, N. D.

They will spend their honeymoon among the 14,000 islands of Lake of the Woods. They are making plans to join a party of tourists making a trip from Kenora, over the Lake of the Woods, up Rainy River, across Rainy Lake, a complete water route of over two hundred miles, making the entire trip by steamboat.

Mr. and Mrs. Battleson will make their future home in Hamlet, N. D. They will be a home after August 1st.
