

Henry Curtis and family were pleasantly surprised by a large number of their friends and neighbors on Thursday, the last day of the old year. The gathering was really in commemoration of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis's twentieth wedding anniversary. They had been married twenty years in June but at that time Mr. Curtis was at a hospital, so the present time was the most propitious as Mr. Curtis is in better health now than he has been for some time. They were presented with a china dinner set, Mr. Ed Ladbury making the presentation with a few remarks appropriate to the occasion. People to the number of seventy-eight were present and a pleasant social time was enjoyed while they were watching the old year out.
