

Joseph W. Epler and Miss Nattie Urquhart were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Urquhart, on December 30, 1914, by Rev. Oscar D. Purinton in the presence of only a few of the nearest relatives and friends. The bride is well known in Hannaford, having been operator at the local telephone exchange at one time. The groom is engaged in the mercantile business at Dooley, Mont., and will make their future home at that point. The newlyweds passed through Hannaford the same afternoon on a wedding trip to Duluth, Minneapolis, and other Minnesota points. A number of their friends intercepted the train here and treated them to a liberal shower of rice. This young couple has a host of friends who will join the Enterprise in wishing them the best good fortune and happiness.
