

---

The Sinclair-Brown Wedding

The wedding of Mrs. Viola G. Brown to W. D. Sinclair was solemnized at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. J. H. Stafford, at Galesburg, Mich., on Monday, Sept. 4th, 1916, by Rev. Perrin, the Congregational minister.

The newly-weds left the same evening for Chicago where they spent two days sight-seeing, and they also spent two days in Minneapolis, after which they left for home arriving in Hannaford Friday evening.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Sinclair are well known in this vicinity and will need no introduction to our readers. Mr. Sinclair has been engaged in business in this village for years, and is at present proprietor of the furniture store.

The numerous friends of Mr. and Mrs. Sinclair extend best wishes for a happy-wedded life.

---