

Dazey Commercial: Elmer Anderson is taking a vacation from his line work with the Co-operative Telephone Co., due to an accident to his arm, which happened while he was cranking E. A. Duff's auto last week. The crank struck his right arm between the wrist and elbow, cracking the bone. While the injury is not a complete fracture it will keep him from work for some time.