

Rolf Herg, who has been in the implement business in Courtenay for eighteen years, has sold out and will give his entire attention to his land interests. He was probably the most widely known implement dealer in this section.