

John Brekke, who has been at a Fargo hospital for the past two weeks receiving treatment for rupture, returned home Saturday. He was not operated upon but the treatment he received has helped him to a considerable extent.