

Mrs. C. O. Dunning had the misfortune to slip and fall on the icy steps Sunday morning and fractured a bone in her right arm. Dr. Benson was called and reduced the fracture. The injury is very painful and and it will be some time before she will have full use of her arm.