

Edgar Gustafson came home from Madison, Wis., last Wednesday for a short visit with his parents. He left the next evening for New York City where he has just secured a job with the American Telephone & Telegraph Company where he will be employed in the department which has the duty of adjusting the rates. This is a big job with a big company and Edgar's many friends here will wish him the best of success.