

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Gustafson returned home Saturday from Grand Forks where they had been to see their son Edgar, who was at a hospital ill with pneumonia. Edgar was improving when they left for home, and all his friends here hope for his easy and complete recovery.

I will be in Grandford March 25.