

The Hannaford school will open on Monday, Sept. 13. It is of importance both to the teachers and pupils that all the scholars who intend to go to school the coming year will be present the first day, and every day thereafter. Irregular attendance not only makes perfect work for those so absent impossible, but it interferes with the work of those who attend regularly. So be on hand on opening day, Sept. 13.