

Hans Kalland was up from Duluth last week for a visit with relatives and friends. Mr. Kalland has been spending the past seven years in Duluth and is employed as conductor on a street car. He left Friday to resume his duties.