

Ole Olson, brother of Mrs. G. M. and Mrs. E. J. Aarestad, who at one time worked as a carpenter in this vicinity, but about 8 years ago went to Canada to take up a homestead, has enlisted in the English navy and is at present aboard one of King George's battleships somewhere on the Atlantic.