

O. A. Otteson, druggist, formerly located at Hamburg, N. D., has opened for business in the store just vacated by A. F. Kencke. Mr. Otteson has splendid store fixtures, a large stock of goods of all kinds, and is a druggist of many years experience. We urge our readers to call at his store when they are in need of anything in his line. They are assured prompt attention and courteous treatment, and only strictly high-grade ingredients are used in filling prescriptions.
