

Louis Rossing, who has been managing the pool room formerly operated by Jake Seibold, while in an intoxicated condition last Saturday evening, got into an altercation with another man, and otherwise created a disturbance with the result that he became an involuntary guest of Marshal Bergren over Sunday at the local jail. Monday morning he was given a hearing in Justice Kencke's court and fined $100 in default of which he will probably serve time in jail.