

•
•
•
n
tr.
O
r
d

be drafted, but a soldier's life appealed so strongly to him that he determined to enlist. He was at first rejected but he made further attempts and was finally admitted to Company B. Victor takes to soldiering like a duck to water, and we believe he will in time distinguish himself in a military capacity.