

Walum News Notes

Mr. and Mrs. August Werth spent last Monday at the county seat.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Coen visited at Cooperstown between trains last Monday.

Mrs. O. A. Gilbertson left Monday for Minneapolis where she will consult physicians regarding a prolonged attack of the grippe and a general run-down condition. She will also visit with relatives in the Twin Cities and Moorhead.

A. M. Baldwin was down from Cooperstown Tuesday morning on legal business.

F. L. Watkins gave a talk on the 1916 program of the North Dakota Enforcement league last Monday night in the hall.

The usual social given in the hall Tuesday night was fairly well attended and those present expressed themselves well entertained. Oscar Westley was down from Hannaford with drums which added immensely to the pep in the music.

Wm. C. Coates returned home last Tuesday after having spent the past six weeks traveling in the capacity of organizer for the non-partisan league. He wound up at the big convention at Fargo and reports a very enthusiastic meeting. He will remain at home now for the summer season and devote most of his time to the poultry business.

Carl F. Werner has moved from the house he has been occupying to the house vacated by A. D. Anderson which has been remodeled. C. A. Evenson expects to move into the house now vacated by Carl Werner.

Auditor Atchison of the Great Western Grain Co. made a business call in town Wednesday.

Gilbert Heyerdahl was up from Fargo Wednesday where he has been since he discontinued farming some time ago. He returned to Fargo on the evening train Wednesday and will go from there to Minneapolis to attend school.

The Railroad Commission has ordered all the grain held in store at the North Dakota Grain Company's elevator shipped and the ticket holders expect to have some returns soon.

Peter C. Nelson returned from Cooperstown Wednesday.

Christ Hanson was at Cooperstown between trains Saturday.