

Walum News Notes

Mrs. H. L. Brewster, a sister of Mrs. Wogsland, is visiting at the Wogsland home.

Fred F. Butler spent the week end with relatives at Rogers.

Mr. and Mrs. Zing left for Underwood their home after having spent the past few weeks with their daughter Mrs. Andrew Wogsland.

Joe Nelson arrived in town Monday from Ironwood, Mich. He will remain in this community during the summer season. We need some more good material like Joe for a ball team.

Andrew Wogsland left last Monday for Fargo where he will take treatments for his eyes.

Lulu Larson was up from Dazey Tuesday giving music lessons. She now has seven students and her entire time is taken up between trains.

E. W. Everson was at Hannaford Monday on business.

Martin Johnson of Sherwood is visiting his brother John Overby. He has purchased a carload of potatoes which he will ship to Sherwood where the tubers are very scarce.

Wm. Anderson arrived from Detroit Tuesday. He started out making the trip with a team but was taken sick with the grippe enroute and had to let a friend of his who was making the trip with him, take the outfit the balance of the distance, while he boarded a G. N. train at Pillsbury and disembarked at Hannaford. He is still confined to his bed but is slowly improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Erick Rud and their daughter Esther visited at the Miklethun home last Monday and Tuesday. They returned to their home at Hannaford Tuesday noon.

Heriaan Peterson was down from Cooperstown and spent the week end with Ben C. Stromme.

Mrs. N. K. Markusson arrived last Monday from Dooley Mont. for a visit with her mother Mrs. Chas. Nelson, who has not been very well for the past two weeks.

Tho. Rasmussen and Wm. Anderson were at Hannaford Thursday where Mr. Anderson consulted Dr. Benson.

Mrs. Geo. J. Jacobson and Mrs. Carl

F. Werner were at Cooperstown between trains Thursday.

Several of the Farmers from this community went to Fargo Thursday to attend the nonpartisan convention, among them were, E. W. Everson, Jas. Bothwell, August Werth, Melvin Heyerdahl, Eric Heyerdahl, Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Wallum, Jas. Carroll and daughter Anna, and Eric O. Wallin.

C. A. Evenson was a business visitor at Hannaford Friday.

Miss Anna Tysen was down from Jessie Friday for a visit with the Lovlands.

Wm. Lemke and Wm. Olson, candidates for republican and democratic national committeemen, respectively, and endorsed by the nonpartisan league, were both defeated at the primary March 21st.

We have a limited amount of 1914 Northern Grown Seed Corn which we will sell for $4.50 per bushel as long as it lasts. Let us have your orders so as to get in on the lowest price. Hannaford Merc. Co.

You Want YOUR VALUABLE
come rent a safety deposit vault insurance you can get, and will burglars but also against fire.
our safety vaults if you will call

Make OUR bank
We pay six % per

Farmers S

William Angus Cash.