

Walum News Notes

Rev. Thoreson returned Saturday from a trip to Fargo. He reports that Edythe Olson, who was recently operated on for appendicitis, is recovering rapidly.

E. W. Everson and Aug. Werth departed last Monday evening for St. Paul to be in attendance at the Equity meeting held there.

The Misses Mabel and Myrtle Everson left Monday for a visit with relatives in the Twin Cities and points in Wisconsin.

Mrs. Geo. J. Jacobson, Mrs. Hegge and Mrs. C. A. Nelson went to Minneapolis last Monday for a visit with friends and relatives.

W. W. Dalziel, who has had charge of the Marsh farm southeast of here, has moved with his family to Valley City where they will make their home for the winter. A farewell party was given by Mrs. A. D. Anderson last Sunday evening in honor of the Dalziels at which a goodly number of friends were present to bid them farewell.

Mrs. Andrew Nelson returned from a visit with relatives at Fergus Falls Wednesday.

Mrs. Chas. Nelson and Misses Clara and Christine Rasmusson were at Cooperstown between trains Wednesday.

Mrs. J. P. Danielson arrived Wednesday from St. John for an extended visit with her folks.

Miss Nettie Olson had a pleasant surprise Thursday when her two brothers dropped in to see her unexpected. They had not seen one another for seven years and will probably make their stay thru part of the holidays.

Fred Butler was destined for Fargo Thursday on business.

The Walum Social Club gave a very pleasant social Wednesday evening in the Hall and was favored with a good attendance. Their next social will be given Saturday evening, Dec. 18th.

Don't forget the Masquerade at Walum Hall, Wednesday, Dec. 15th; music by Malchow's Rag Time Kings

Aug. Werth returned from St. Paul Friday and reports a very well attended and enthusiastic meeting of the Equity. St. Paul entertained the farmers of the Northwest royally.