

Walum News Notes

The annual meeting of the stockholders in the Farmers Cooperative Mercantile Company was held in the hall Saturday February 19th. Only regular routine work was taken up and then election of officers. Peter C. Nelson was elected president to succeed Eric O. Wallin. Geo. J. Jacobson succeeds himself as secretary, and John H. Haugen was elected treasurer vice Emmel Hoffman. The only new director was Nic Swenson who succeeds A. D. Anderson who has resigned as manager of the company. It was decided to call a special meeting of the stockholders sometime within the next 15 days in order to hear the report of the auditing committee which had not completed its report.

Nic Swenson was a Valley City passenger last Saturday.

School was reopened last Monday with Miss Kaas of Hannaford in charge.

Chester Walum was a county seat visitor last Monday.

Emil Kjelson came up from Dazey last Monday to assist Carl F. Werner in the store. The new managers taking charge last Wednesday. The postmastership has been assigned to Carl F. Werner and he will take charge of Uncle Sam's business until a permanent appointment of manager for the store has been made and we presume then that whoever takes over the store will also be postmaster.

Henrietta Johnson was at Cooperstown last Monday between trains.

Harvey Rasmussen was up from Dazey last Monday.

Miss Lulu Larson was a visitor in town from Dazey last Monday.

Dan Clark and wife of Edmunds, who have been visiting at the Jacobson home, left Monday for Valley City.

A Non-partisan election was held in the hall last Tuesday with a good attendance. E. W. Everson was elected to represent this district at the delegates' convention.

The social last Tuesday evening in the hall proved a grand success, being well attended and every one enjoyed themselves immensely.

Wm. C. Coates went to Sanborn Wednesday.

Edwin Everson and Carl Rohlwing were at Hannaford Wednesday trying to beat all previous records on the ten pinnet alley. The task proved too much for them. Sorry, boys.

Dance Walum, March 3, "Nuff said"

Mrs. A. D. Anderson was at Hannaford Wednesday between trains renewing acquaintances.

Ole Broten was a business visitor at the county seat Wednesday.

Arvie Wunderlich was at Hannaford Wednesday.

Anna Carroll went to Cooperstown Thursday.

Clara Rasmussen visited at Hannaford between trains Wednesday.

Andrew D. Anderson left Thursday on the G. N. local from Hannaford for Fargo and other points east.

Mr. and Mrs. Zing, the aged parents of Mrs. Andrew Wogslund, arrived Friday for a visit at the Wogslund home.

E. W. Everson and H. G. Rohlwing attended the Farmers Institute at Hannaford Friday.

Mrs. A. Werth and Miss McDonald were Cooperstown passengers Friday.

Bert McLunes was up from Dazey Friday on business.

Geo. J. Jacobson and wife went to Fargo Friday.

Arne Hovland went to Hannaford Saturday to take in the Institute.

Teddy Rasmussen and Harry McGann went to Hannaford Saturday to patronize the tonsorial parlors.

Jens Pederson and Julius Halvorson were county seat passengers Saturday.

Edwin Everson slid over to Hannaford Saturday on business.

The Northern Pacific brakeman on No. 142 Friday came mighty near being detained at Walum by a local lady friend.