

Walum News Notes

Ed Nelson and family, who have been in charge of the Marsh farm southeast of town, left Saturday for Leal.

Elmer Nelson left last Saturday for Minneapolis where he will take a course in traction engineering.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Nelson and son Percy were at Cooperstown last Monday between trains.

John Martinson and Andrew Nord-erhaug were county seat visitors last Monday.

Eva Fogderud was a passenger to Hannaford last Monday.

Theo. Rasmussen and Chester Wunderlich were at Hannaford between trains last Monday on matters of business.

Auditor Somdahl of the North Dakota Grain Co., made a business call upon the company's agent, C. A. Nelson.

The Social given in the hall last Tuesday was well attended and all those present were well pleased with the new line of amusements offered by the committee in charge. A delightful lunch was served.

Wm. C. Coates was at Hannaford last Wednesday introducing his new patented suspender.

Let's all go to the big dance in the Walum Hall, Friday, Feb. 11, where you always have a good time.

Carl F. Werner and Henry Lewis were county seat visitors Wednesday.

The non partisan meeting held in the hall last Wednesday, although not very well attended on account of the extreme cold and also poor roads, proved very interesting to those who ventured out. Mr. Bowen, who gave the talk, pointed out very effectively the purpose of the organization.

Mesdames Evenson and Wallum were at Hannaford renewing acquaintances Thursday.

Raymond Rohlwing accompanied by his father went to Fargo Thursday, where if necessary he will undergo an operation for appendicitis. Word was received Friday that his condition was somewhat improved and that possibly an operation would not be necessary.

Word was received Thursday evening by Mrs. Henry Lewis of the death of her sister, Miss May Kapping, at a Fargo hospital, after an illness of two weeks. Burial will be made at Verona, N. D., where the parents of the deceased live. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis left Friday evening for that point to attend the funeral which will take place from the German Lutheran church at one o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Julius Halvorson went to Cooperstown Saturday on business.

The Geidl's movie show Friday evening in the hall was well liked by all who attended. Saturday night's show was also very interesting as the feature film Jessie James was shown.

Miss Christine Rasmussen was a Hannaford passenger Saturday.