

• • • • •
• WALUM NEWS NOTES •
• • • • •

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. J. Jacobson left Monday for Fargo to attend the bankers' Convention.

Gus Kaping arrived Monday from Verona for a short visit at the Lewis home.

The Wogsland family motored to Valley City Thursday to take in the Old Settlers' Day at the Valley City Chautauqua.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Anderson returned Tuesday from a two weeks' visit with friends and relatives at Detroit and Ulen, Minn.

Theo. Rasmussen went to Luverne Tuesday to take charge of the Farmers Elevator there in the capacity of manager. Mr. Rasmussen has been agent for the Great Western Grain Co. here for the past three years and although his many friends here regret his leaving they are glad to learn of his having secured a better position. On account of being unable to get a house at Luverne the family will remain here until next fall.

Mesdames Sylvia and Margaret Hovland left Thursday for Valley City to take in a portion of the Chautauqua.

Rev. Chester Birch, the noted evangelist, held services in the hall Monday evening and delivered a very forceful and beneficial sermon.

Quite a number of Walumites attended the county fair at Coopers-town Wednesday.

Edwin and Myrtle Everson returned Friday from a couple weeks' visit with relatives at Fish Lake.

The Walum Union Sunday School will give an ice cream social and program in the Hall Tuesday evening July 24th. Everybody come and boost a good thing along.