

Walum News Notes

Mrs. Elmer Walum left Saturday evening for a visit with relatives in Wisconsin.

Edwin Everson, Raymond Rohlwing, Wm. Anderson and Bill Casey left Saturday for Detroit, Minn., to spend the Fourth.

Mrs. Wunderlich and daughter Laura returned Thursday from an extended visit with friends and relatives at various points throughout Minnesota.

E. W. Everson reached home last Wednesday from Carpio, where he attended a meeting of the total Abstiners Society. He sustained a rather serious bruise on his right leg while trying to get the auto out of a mudhole where they had been stalled near Carrington.

Mrs. O. A. Gilbertson and daughter Olive took in the Fair Friday.

Edwin Nelson left Saturday for his home near Barnesville, where he will spend the Fourth.

Mrs. Ben C. Stromme and daughter Marie returned Friday from a week's visit at Lake Park.

During the severe electric storm last Wednesday the lightning struck down thru the chimney of Andrew Nelson's farm house and forced the doors of the kitchen stove open, dashed into the dining room where some of the plaster was torn off by its force. Luckily none of those within the house were hurt although somewhat frightened by the shock.

A goodly number of people from this vicinity took in the fair at Cooperstown the last two days.

Arne Hovland has commenced rebuilding his barn which was blown down by the storm some time ago.

Mrs. Lewis' mother and some friends from Verona made a short visit at the Lewis home Friday.

Miss Christie Rasmussen returned from Dazey Friday where she has been visiting friends.