

Walum News Notes

Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Nelson were at Cooperstown between trains Monday.

Arvie Wunderlich was at the county seat last Monday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Danielson and Miss Mabel Everson came down from St. John, N. D., by auto to visit with relatives. Mabel will remain here with her folks and the Danielsons will return to St. John soon.

Miss Lulu Larson of Dazey made her usual call in town Tuesday to instruct her class in music.

Miss Christie Rasmussen spent last Wednesday at Cooperstown.

Miss Elma Flaten of Cyrus, Minn., arrived Friday to visit at the Hovland home.

Elizabeth Carroll went to Binford Friday to visit with friends.

Mrs. Teddy Rasmussen and Mrs. Wm. Anderson were at Hannaford between trains Thursday calling on friends.

Mrs. L. G. Brewster of Cannon Ball, N. D., arrived Thursday for a visit with her sister Mrs. Andrew Wogslund.

J. P. Danielson went to Fargo Thursday evening on business returning Friday noon.

Dr. Samuel Juell was at Hannaford between trains Thursday calling on friends.

P. C. Nelson, our county commissioner, was called to Cooperstown Thursday to attend to some matters in connection with commission duties.

Fred F. Butler left Thursday evening for Fargo to take in the Shrine.

Mrs. Clara Markwood spent Saturday at Cooperstown.

Miss Elma Flaten left for Binford Saturday after having visited at the Hovland home.