

• • • • •
WALUM NEWS NOTES
• • • • •

James Rasmussen has purchased the Kins house and will move in as soon as the present tenant vacates.

Wm. Anderson will move to Luverne next week, where he expects to make his home.

Miss Dena Wallum and Miss Grace Trangsrud came down from Cooperstown Friday to visit with relatives. They returned Saturday.

Miss Lela Campbell arrived Friday from Carrington, where she is attending school, to spend the weekend at the Jacobson home. She was met at Rogers by her uncle George, Henry Lewis and E. W. Everson.

Mrs. Justin Wallum spent between trains at Cooperstown Saturday.

A. N. Peterson, of Fairmead, Cal., visited Friday and Saturday at the home of Andrew Nelson. He was accompanied by Ole Fogderud who is his neighbor in California. Mr. Peterson left Saturday for Binford, where he owns a large farm.

O. A. Gilbertson left Saturday for Minneapolis where Mrs. Gilbertson is taking treatments.

Mrs. C. F. Werner spent between trains at the county seat Saturday.

The first number of the Acme Lyceum Bureau, scheduled to give a series of entertainments here this winter, will be given Saturday evening October 27th in the Hall. Geo. L. Barker, a noted speaker, will be the main feature of the first entertainment.

Misses Anna and Selma Olson, of the Wallum school, and Miss Minnie Olson of the Goplen school, went to Cooperstown Monday to attend the Teachers' Institute.

John Haugen and son Bennie went to Bismarck Tuesday on business. They returned Thursday.

Geo. Medley spent a few days visiting at Leal this week.

Wm. C. Coates returned Tuesday from Minnesota where he is employed by the Non-partisan league. Mr. Coates expects to move to Minnesota in the near future.

Mrs. Theo. Rasmussen came over from Luverne Wednesday for a short visit at the Anderson home.