

• • • • •
WALUM NEWS NOTES
• • • • •

C. A. Evenson motored here from Glenfield last Sunday for a visit with relatives.

Miss Josie Stromme spent between trains at Cooperstown Monday.

Otto Hoffman was down from Shepard Monday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Medley entertained the young people of the Sunday School Thursday evening at their home. The evening was pleasantly spent playing parlor games after which a very delicious lunch was served.

The Walum Branch of the American Red Cross will give a Basket Carnival Thursday evening, Oct. 11, in the Walum Hall. All the ladies in the community are urged to come and bring a basket. Preparations are well under way for a good entertainment and every one should arrange to turn out for this event and help the good work along. Don't miss this good time.

John Broten of Glenfield was here Wednesday looking after business matters.

Mrs. Geo. Jacobson went to Carlington Monday for a visit. She returned home Thursday accompanied by Mrs. McMary of Edmunds, who will visit for a few days.

Oscar Johnson and brother visited for a short time at the Medley home.

O. Nelson, who is working for Elmer Wallum, left Saturday on a short business trip to Crete, N. D.

Remember the big Red Cross Carnival at Walum Hall Thursday evening, Oct. 11th. All the ladies bring baskets. Everybody invited.

Mrs. John Steen spent between trains at Hannaford Wednesday.

Mrs. F. Toenberg and daughter, Gerd, returned last Sunday from Minneapolis.

The Walum and Goplen schools opened Monday morning. The Walum school has two teachers this year in place of one.

Theo. Rasmussen and family, Jas. Casey and Geo. Smithberger of Laverne motored here Wednesday evening to take in the dance.

Andrew Wogsland and daughter Grace left Friday for Fargo where Miss Wogsland expects to attend the Dakota Business College.

Carl Heyerdahl left Friday evening on a short visit with friends at Valley City.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lewis, Mrs. Geo. Jacobson and Mrs. McMary motored to Edmunds Saturday for a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ferman Layne.

Monsterous Basket Carnival at Walum Hall, Thursday, evening, Oct. 11. Everybody invited. Ladies will kindly bring baskets. It's for a good cause so don't miss it.