

Walum News Notes

O. A. Gilbertson and family returned last Saturday from a five weeks vacation. While gone they visited in Canada and several places on the coast. Mr. Gilbertson resumed work at the depot Monday.

Arthur Sampson from Wisconsin was in town last Monday calling on friends.

C. A. Nelson went to Valley City last Monday evening to accompany his wife home. Mrs. Nelson underwent a slight operation at the Valley City hospital.

Anna Tysen arrived here Tuesday for a visit at the Hovland home.

A. H. Widje of Moorhead was in town Tuesday and Wednesday looking after his interests in this vicinity.

Lulu Larson was up from Dazey Wednesday.

Sylvia Hovland returned home Thursday from a visit up the branch.

We are sorry to learn that Mrs. O. M. Rognlien has been on the sick list the past week. Her condition however is now improving.

Local nimrods returned after their first five days hunt with unusually small bags. Ducks however are plentiful but mighty hard to get.

Lars Enger of Chicago is visiting at the Jacobson home.

Andrew Wogsland went to Valley City Friday to see Mrs. Wogsland who is now recovering from an operation and is getting along nicely.

Miss Hulda Holm of Reynolds, N. D. visited at the Gilbertson home last Friday and Saturday. She left Saturday for Binford where she will teach school.

Geo. Medley left Friday for St. Paul where he expects to purchase a carload of young steers which he will ship here for fattening.

Miss Anna Tysen left Friday for Bowden N. D. where she will teach the coming school year.

School opened Monday morning with Louise Kaas of Hannaford in charge.

Mrs. F. Toenberg took her daughter Gherd to Valley City Sunday to consult a physician. They motored there with Theo. Rasmussen.

E. W. Everson is erecting a new barn now to replace the one lost in last springs storm.

Mrs. Gilbert Transgrud was here spending Sunday with relatives.