

Emelia Alberts received a telegram Monday stating that her brother had died in France. Miss Alberts left the same evening for her home in Minnesota where memorial services will be held.