

Just as we go to press we learn that three more children in the Elias Berge family have succumbed to the flu. A mention of the death of Mrs. Berge and two children in the same family is made elsewhere in these columns. Thus six deaths have occurred in one family within one week. Mr. Berge and the remaining two children are said to be seriously sick with the same disease and little hope is held out for their recovery.

---